

BT Office Anywhere®

Overview:

BT Office Anywhere¹ is a mobile service that gives users many of the functions of a Windows® PC, but in a smartphone small enough to fit in the pocket. It offers the option of an Internet Calling service (only available on HTC S620) giving you great call savings, as well as instant access to real-time email, calendar, contacts, documents and the internet, enabling SMEs to work as effectively out of the office as they would at their desks.

Reasons to have Office Anywhere:

- Because people work both in and out of the office, we offer you email, calendar and contacts all at your fingertips, all of the time
- You won't have to wait until you are back at your desk to start work on a just-briefed project or great idea. You'll have access to colleagues and office systems, helping you to win new customers and retain existing ones

Features of Office Anywhere:

- Have a Windows PC experience in the palm of your hand
- Have email, calendar and contacts updated in real time
- To synchronise e-mail, contacts, calendar and other information with Office Anywhere, you must have MS Exchange 2003 SP2 (or later) or Hosted Exchange (BT Business Email Plus or a Hosted Exchange mailbox from another provider). If you don't have either or don't need to sync your contacts or calendar you can use a POP email access from most email suppliers for email only
- Use Internet Explorer® to surf the web – getting access to up-to-date information such as train times
- Microsoft® Mobile Office allows you to edit and save Word® and Excel® files on the move. You can also view PowerPoint® and pdf documents
- Available handsets: HTC S620 and Samsung C6625

Price:

Special Office Anywhere offer from £20.25 per month:³

- Free unlimited email and voicemail on 24 month contracts
- Inclusive new Samsung C6625 handset
